

GARCIA CARRION

SINCE 1890

PATA NEGRA

The area benefits from the confluence of two opposite climates: the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, which provide mild temperatures and annual rainfall $>400 \text{ L/m}^2$, ideal conditions for the vine. There are three zones with differentiated wine-growing characteristics: Rioja Alta, Rioja Alavesa and Rioja Oriental.

CRianza 2018 SPECIAL EDITION

100% Tempranillo

13,5% Vol.

12 months in American oak barrels

TASTING NOTES

This Special Edition of Pata Negra Rioja Crianza has an appealing ruby- red color and a delicate texture. On the nose, red fruit aromas stand out over a more complex background, which combines vanilla, clove and aromatic herbs. On the palate, it is tasty and structured, leaving a soft sensation due to its 12 months aging in barrel.

FOOD PAIRING

Perfect with red meat barbecues and roasted chicken. However, why don't you try it with your pizza?

Best served at 16°C
